Introduction

Different erudite have different conduit but ultimate objective is learning. From Gurukul to Modern age wisdom, learning continues and it will continue in far future also. In the age of transformation we are more dependent on reality of technology. Now kid's learning starts with Joystick, mouse, keyboard, smart class instead of chalk & blackboard. So, why technology will not be used in Education? We need another kind of learning medium which can overcome the constraints of conventional learning. So we need a different environment.

E-Learning! E-Learning!! E-Learning!!! What is E-Learning? Is the E-Learning is alternative of conventional Learning? Can Conventional Learning and E-Learning be happen together? All these questions can be solved here. It is practically a collaborative platform where teacher, student will build up complete learning environment. But the question is how? E-Learning is the answer. So many things are not reached to the students on time due to so many reasons and that can reach to them though E-Learning environment. Explanation of different pedagogy: Applied to design such environment. It is available 24x7.

Objective

The objective of this National Seminar is to provide an exposure in the field of E-Learning pedagogy, content development tools, learner requirement analysis, technology adapted in E-Learning and challenges in E-Learning. Live demonstrations of various E-Learning portals, work principle, virtual class rooms operation and other design tools will be shown.
